TOMMY HILFIGER CELEBRATES HIS FIRST VISIT TO AUSTRALIA SURROUNDED BY CELEBRITIES AT HIS NEW YORK STYLE PARTY IN JONES BAY WHARF

Tommy Hilfiger, which is owned by PVH Corp. [NYSE: PVH], brought the energy and flair the iconic brand is known for to Sydney, transforming the heritage building Chukka into an exclusive New York Style Loft Party to celebrate the arrival of Mr. Tommy Hilfiger in Australia.

Reinforcing the brand's relationship with fashion, art, music and entertainment, a line up of local and international talent sporting* Tommy Hilfiger including Lucky Blue Smith, Matty J, Flight Facilities, Gemma Ward, Jesinta Franklin, Cameron Robbie, Pia Muehlenbeck, Samantha Harris, Christian Wilkins, Jade Tunchy, Tom Derickx, Sammy Robinson, Abbey Gelmi, Bree McCann, Ali Simpson, Yan Yan Chan and Carmen Hamilton came to experience one night out with Tommy, in true Tommy style.

Guests arrived to the iconic Jones Bay Wharf building, lit up in the brand's iconic Americana colour, whilst electric music duo, Set Mo were on the DJ decks, setting the tone for the evening. A giant disco ball brought some retro fun to the evening, echoing similar scenes of the recent Tommy Now show in New York.

An Aussie American food fusion delighted the hip crowd with ribs on the BBQ, American style hot dogs, mini corn on the cob and Angus beef burger sliders – with the lot! A feature wall serving local beer and wine was set up, offering a unique selection of beverages.
